

Writing

You will find three writing prompts below. Choose one of the prompts to start writing about. Try and write in detail. Think about what makes good writing - use of punctuation, details, surprising the reader, expanding ideas.

If you were forced to spend the rest of your life in a library, a museum or a zoo, which would you choose and why?

Write a story about this picture and give it a name.

What is this frog daydreaming about?
